White Merino and Mohair wools with pure silk fibers

60cm / 24" x Ø 25cm / 10"

The Apaya Collection is designed by Ayala Serfaty in collaboration with textile artist Irit Dulman.

The Apaya Collection exemplifies Ayala Serfaty's passionate research of textiles and light. Combining ancient wool felting techniques with modern lighting technology, Apaya safeguards heritage whilst re-inventing its future.

Celebrating the inherent qualities of natural color and fibrous structure, wool becomes a sculptural carrier of light in a uniquely aesthetic way.

Each piece is individually handcrafted. The mixing of pure white merino and mohair wools results in a one-of-a-kind expression of light.

The Apaya Collection is made of natural fibers (mohair, silk, and wool), hand- processed with ecological and environmentally friendly products.

The pure wool and mohair is collected from specialized animal - friendly farms where the sheep are groomed and grown to produce the highest quality of wool fiber and curls. Being the first of its kind, the handmade felted wool is molded into a singular sleeve that is easily slipped over a transparent cylinder that hosts the fluorescent bulbs powered by a digital ballast. Due to the modular quality the sleeves can easily be removed and exchanged.

The Apaya lamps form a complete and contemporary lighting collection.
